Defence Chief Says Nucleus Of Army Necessary

WINNIPEG (CP)—There are two main factors influencing the size of Canada's armed forces, Defence Minister Abbott told a luncheon meeting of the Canadian Club here today.

The first is that sufficient manpower should be available which, in the event of an emergency, could provide the nucleus of trained personnel for the organization and speedy mobilization of the civilian population, he said. The second factor is the extent of Canada's military obligations to the United Nations. "All of us hope that there will never be another war," he said. "We hope that peace and security can be achieved through the world organization which has been established. The ideal is, of course, peace with no necessity for armed forces, either part-time or full-time. But this position cannot be achieved overnight. These things take time to arrange. Until such time as we have achieved this ideal, armed forces, whether on a full-time or part-time basis, or both, are still required."

BACKBONE OF FORCES

"I do not think we can over-emphasize the important role the part-time soldiers play in the defence set-up of Canada. He has been the backbone of our fighting force in two wars, and I cannot contemplate any future war in which he would not carry out a similar role."

'Miss Australia' To Visit Victoria

On Nov. 20, 19-year-old, blonde Rhonda Kelly, of Brisbane, Queensland, who was chosen "Miss Australia, 1945" in a nationwide contest for beauty-plus-brains, will arrive in Victoria for a three-day visit.

Niagara Falls, Welland, Ont., Toronto, Vancouver and Victoria are the Canadian points of her itinerary. "Miss Australia," who won over 1,000 entrants, is something unusual in beauty contest winners. She postponed the world tour, which was her main prize, for six months so that she could complete her course at the University of Queensland. She obtained her degree on May 15 and then said she was ready to leave for her tour.

Art Centre May Be At Craigdarroch

The feasibility of establishing an art centre in the upper stories of Craigdarroch after Victoria College moves to the Normal School is being investigated by the School Board, Austin I. Curtis, chairman, said today.

"We have been approached by the Little Centre officials for permission to set up the art centre in Craigdarroch," Mr. Curtis said. "If suitable arrangements can be made to provide the necessary facilities it would seem a very good idea to have the art centre there."

He indicated that the school board offices, if established there, would not require the whole building.

Jeep In The Deep

Engineers take an automotive plunge into Lake Erie, near Toledo, Ohio, to test new deep-water fording kit which was perfected for the U.S. navy. The kit, which waterproofs the ignition and other vulnerable parts, will keep the jeep rolling in water for periods as long as 45 minutes. Only the occupants get wet.

All T.W.A. Planes Aground As 1,400 Pilots On Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—As well as adjustments in the hourly and mileage rates for pilots of the high-speed four-engined planes used in trans-oceanic service.

More than 90 flights were canceled, leaving an estimated 3,000 passengers temporarily stranded. In addition, the movement of 25 tons of mail was diverted to other carriers. T.W.A., fourth largest U.S. air line, operates over 28,270 miles of routes.

The walkout—first in commercial aviation's history—started at 4:59 a.m., E.S.T. Shortly thereafter the company began canceling domestic and trans-Atlantic flights of its giant Constellations and Skymasters.

In New York it was announced that all domestic flights of the airline have been canceled for a 24-hour period.

FLIGHTS COMPLETED

The announcement said the stoppage was effective as of 5 a.m. E.S.T., today. Several planes en route when the strike deadline came were allowed to complete their flights.

Other airlines were not affected immediately. Strikers posted picket lines at Kansas City maintenance shops, however, raising the possibility that pilots of the other airlines might not cross them.

Approximately 1,100 members of the Airlines Pilots' Association (A.P.A.) are involved. The union demands salaries ranging up to $1,187.43 monthly for first pilots.

In an advance statement issued for release one minute after the strike deadline, David L. Behncke, union president, termed the action a "last recourse" effort to settle a wage dispute more than a year old.

MAY BE TAKEN OVER

Oswald Ryan, acting chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board, said the possibility of government seizure of the airline would be discussed at a board meeting today.

Immediately at issue is a union demand for revision upward of pilots' pay schedules recommended by a presidential fact-finding board last July 7. The fact-finding board called for a $750 increase in the $3,000 annual base pay ceiling for pilots.

More Bombings In Berlin May Come, Says U.S.

STUTTGART, Germany (AP)—A ranking U.S. army official said today he expected more bombings like the week-end blasts in the Stuttgart area, as "protests against the denazification program."

"The American Military Government expects a widespread outbreak against the denazification program," the official, who may not be named, said in Berlin.

U.S. military and German criminal police worked with counter intelligence agents in efforts to crack the bombing of two denazification board headquarters and a U.S. military jail which some investigators thought to be connected with the approaching German trial of Hjalmar Schacht, truculent old banker who was acquitted at Nuernberg. No one was hurt. (See earlier story page 6.)

Schacht, under arrest in a German prison some distance from the one which was bombed, shouted to a reporter from his cell that the bombings were "obviously a democratic protest against the Hitlerite measures of Germans who want to try me again."

The City of Stuttgart offered a $2,500 reward for information.

U.S. authorities disclosed that an American motor pool was destroyed in an explosion in the Mannheim area early this month, and that a week before the Stuttgart bombings, a U.S. army officer's car was demolished south of here by an infernal machine. The investigators thought the incidents "possibly may have some connection."

Schacht, who was Hitler's finance minister and Reichsbank president early in the Nazi regime, said he had learned of the bombings early today.

"It could not be a plot to kill me—who would want to kill me?" the tall, heavy-jawed German said fiercely. "I am no Nazi. They are protesting against the illegal measures of these Germans who today are trying to imitate Hitler."

"I am being detained illegally. These Germans are stupid fools. Criminals. Rogues. Hitlerites. Who ever heard of a man being tried twice on the same charges? This is not democracy; this is Hitlerism."

3 Pickets Sentenced

VANCOUVER (CP)—Three men, convicted of unlawful assembly in connection with a disturbance outside the Vancouver Daily Province building last July 23, today were sentenced to jail terms ranging from four to eight months, by Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson, in the Assize Court. William B. Friesen, 36, was sentenced to eight months; Jack Rockandel, 21, six months, and Robert Daniels, 31, four months.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Russian and U.S. delegations to the United Nations General Assembly, which will convene Wednesday in Flushing Meadow Park, reached full strength today with the arrival of Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov, and Senator Tom Connally (Dem.-Tex.) from the Paris Peace Conference.

With them aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth which arrived here this morning on her maiden peacetime voyage were Paul Henri Spaak, Belgium Foreign Minister and president of the General Assembly, and several others in the mounting list of topflight diplomats gathering in New York.

These include Philip J. Noel-Baker, who will head the British delegation until the arrival of Foreign Secretary Bevin; Sir Hartley Shawcross, Britain's Attorney General; Jan Masaryk, Czech Foreign Minister; Dr. Quo Tai-chi, Chinese delegate to the Security Council; Joseph Bech, Luxembourg's Foreign Minister, and Dmitri Manuilsky, Foreign Minister of the Soviet Ukraine. Canada's delegation arrived today.

Gandhi Says Moslem League Should Halt Bengal Riots

NEW DELHI (CP)—Mohandas K. Gandhi said today the Moslem League ministry in Bengal should be able to control disorders in the province, in which thousands have been driven from their homes and an uncounted number killed, injured or kidnapped.

The spiritual leader of the predominantly Hindu Congress Party spoke in an interview while troops were reinforced in East Bengal, where bloody Hindu-Moslem warfare threatened a crisis in India's new interim government.

Gandhi said the Moslem League "has an overwhelming percentage of Moslem voters on its side" and for that reason should be able to control the Moslem gangs reported raiding Hindus. He said the outbreaks were "heart-breaking."

WILL VISIT DISTRICT

He said he intends to visit the troubled areas next week.

The government said 1,600 men—two battalions and a brigade headquarters—would join 2,500 soldiers and 450 armed police in the troubled Noakhali and Tippera districts east of Calcutta today.

Newspapers charged the Viceroy, Viscount Wavell, and Sir Frederick Burrows, the Bengal provincial governor, with delay in protecting East Bengal's Hindu minority.

Sunday Viscount Wavell wound up a three-day visit to Bombay as four persons were killed and 13 wounded in communal violence there. Four persons were killed and 14 injured Saturday.

The convoy of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, leading minister in the new government and ex-president of the Hindu-led All-India Congress Party, was attacked by several hundred tribesmen in the Khyber Pass on a tour of India's

Outvoted Even In Soviet Zone By Moderates

BERLIN (AP)—Complete returns showed today Berlin voters had sharply rebuffed the Russian-sponsored Socialist Unity (Communist) party in city and borough council elections Sunday, beating it even in the Soviet zone by nearly 3 to 2.

Final returns gave these results:
Social Democrats 948,851, or 48.8 per cent.
Christian Democratic Union 432,016, or 22.2 per cent.
Socialist Unity (Communists) 383,269, or 19.7 per cent.
Liberal Democrats 181,875, or 9.3 per cent.

The Social Democrats led in all four occupation sectors. They trounced the Socialist Unity (Communist) in the U.S., British and French zones and beat them handily in the Russian sector, 309,297 to 214,314.

Balloting, by straight ticket only, was heavy and orderly. There were 2,349,722 eligible voters. By 10:30 a.m., 1,945,938 valid votes had been tabulated. Void ballots then numbered 37,272.

Before the election, Lt.-Col. Louis Glaser, political affairs chief of the U.S. Military Government's Berlin branch, said the issue clearly lay between eastern and western political philosophies.

"Germany must ultimately make a decision in this respect," he said. "The Berlin vote, establishing such a decision, will have great influence upon the ultimate destiny of Germany and therefore upon the political destiny of Europe."

Though pre-election predictions generally had favored the Social Democrats, strong in pre-Nazi Berlin, the defeat the S.E.D. suffered surprised many.

This party, formed in the Russian zone by a fusion of Communists and Social Democrats, waged a stronger campaign than other parties because it had more paper and other material advantages.

In campaigning, it claimed that it carried more weight with the Soviet Military Administration than any other party. The S.E.D. had claimed the Social Democrats would show strength only in the U.S. and British sectors, but an early breakdown of the vote made it plain they were strong all over the city and whipped the S.E.D. even in some important districts of the Soviet sector.

Inspection teams representing the four occupying powers—United States, Britain, France and Russia—toured the city watching for fraud.

Stop All Building But Homes Housing Conference Requests

A stoppage of all nonessential building and the diversion of all building materials to low-cost housing for a period of one year was requested in a resolution passed Sunday by the housing conference of the Victoria Veteran-Labor Consultative Council at the Britannia Branch auditorium of the Canadian Legion.

The conference was attended by delegates representing 90 organizations from Greater Victoria and the resolution received unanimous support.

The federal government will be asked to take cognizance of the national housing emergency that exists, and, in addition to stopping nonessential building, to make funds available to provincial and municipal governments at low interest rates for any low rental housing projects these governments will undertake.

The convention instructed the executive to notify the federal authorities of the resolution by mail, and to arrange personal interviews with Premier John Hart and the municipal councils of Greater Victoria. After these interviews a further public meeting will be called when the executive will report.

The Naval Veterans Branch of the Legion introduced a resolution asking that veterans building their own dwellings, whether financed by the Veterans' Land Act, the National Housing Administration or their own capital, be given the same priority on supplies as government housing projects. It was proposed this priority be given only where the house is not valued at more than $7,000.

The Britannia Branch of the Legion sponsored a resolution asking that no rents on any of the housing projects be above $30 a month for a housing unit.

The Chamber of Commerce recommended that all army camps be reconditioned for emergency housing purposes.

Lack Of Ships Delays Canadian Immigration

PARIS (Reuter)—Brooke Claxton, Canadian Minister of Health and leader of the Canadian delegation to the Paris Peace Conference, told French journalists that "Canada will have to wait for end of the shipping crisis before opening her doors to immigrants."

"When the time comes, however, to adopt a definite immigration plan Canada, who is proud of her dual French and British characteristics, will bear in mind with special attention the Frenchmen who wish to come to her," said Mr. Claxton Friday, shortly before leaving by air for Italy and Greece.

New York Gives Noisy Welcome As Ss. Queen Elizabeth Docks

NEW YORK (CP)—The liner Queen Elizabeth sailed majestically into New York today, completing her first trans-Atlantic crossing as a civilian liner. The world's largest vessel received a spectacular welcome that almost matched the tumultuous send-off given her at Southampton five days ago.

Aboard were more than 2,300 passengers. Among them were diplomats of world prominence, leaders of finance and industry, British nobility and stars of the entertainment world, all sharing the spotlight of attention on this maiden voyage of the ship with which Britain hopes to maintain her leadership of the North-Atlantic travel route.

The crossing from Southampton was made in well under five days, the time from Bishop's Rock to Ambrose Light, the measured course of 3,143 miles over which North Atlantic record times are clocked, being 4 days, 16 hours, 18 minutes. No attempt was made to lower the record of 3 days, 20 hours, 42 minutes set by the Queen Elizabeth's sister-ship, the Queen Mary, in 1938. That would have been like taking candy from the baby sister.

PLANES CIRCLE

Despite the early 7.30 a.m. arrival, New York gave an enthusiastic "hello" to the 8,673-ton Queen Elizabeth, making her initial voyage as a luxury ship after six-year war service. Planes flew overhead, city fireboats played their streams of water high into the air and ferryboats and other harbor craft blew their whistles in a typical Manhattan welcome home as the liner made her stately way to Pier 90.

Cabinet Minister For Three Periods, P. J. A. Cardin Dies

SOREL, Que. (CP)—Pierre Joseph Arthur Cardin, 67, a minister in three Liberal governments and member of Parliament for Richelieu-Verchères since 1911, died Sunday night. He suffered a heart attack Sept. 29 and had been confined to his bed since.

As a representative of French Canada in successive Mackenzie King governments, Mr. Cardin came to exert wide influence in the public mind in Quebec where he became popularly known as one of the "Big Three" in federal Liberal politics with Rt. Hon. Ernest Lapointe and Hon. G. G. Power.

Shortly after the outbreak of the Second Great War, the "Big Three" staked their political future on the outcome of the Quebec provincial election, opposing Premier Maurice Duplessis to gain French Canada's co-operation with the Dominion government in its war effort.

The Quebec election was called less than two months after Canada had declared war on Germany. The three Dominion cabinet ministers agreed to resign their portfolios if the Union Nationale administration was returned to office.

That act was perhaps the climax of a career in politics to which almost half Mr. Cardin's life span was devoted. He was active from the opening of the

No Proof Found Attempt On Life Of Pope Planned

ROME (AP)—An informant at Italian police headquarters said today that "vague reports" were received there some days ago of an impending attempt on the life of Pope Pius.

The informant said these reports—which an intensive investigation had failed so far to substantiate—said the plot had been fomented by Yugoslav elements angered by the Vatican's action in excommunicating Yugoslav Roman Catholic officials held responsible for the collaboration trial of Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac, Head of the Roman Catholic Church in Yugoslavia, Archbishop Stepinac, was convicted and sentenced to 16 years' imprisonment.

A list of some 20 names of the alleged plotters was furnished to the Italian police, the informant said, but so far police have found no trace of the persons named—or even determined whether they really exist.

DENIAL GIVEN

Reuter's news agency quoted "a most reliable source" as denying categorically the report of attempt.

Earlier, the Exchange Telegraph Agency had reported in a London dispatch that police were guarding the route to be taken Sunday by the Pontiff from his summer residence, Castel Gandolfo, to the Vatican.

Reuter's said no security measures were taken at the Vatican Sunday and not even the usual access card to St. Peter's Cathedral was required.

campaign until it ended with a victory for a new government headed by Premier Adolphe Godbout.

He subsequently resigned from the federal cabinet in May 1942 on the conscription issue, but continued to sit in the House of Commons on the government side.

Born in Sores, he graduated in law from Laval University and entered politics by winning the Richelieu-Verchères seat in the House of Commons in 1911.

Russian Kills U.S. Civilian In Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—An American civilian employee of the army was shot and killed in the Russian sector of Berlin Sunday by a Russian military policeman on sentry duty, an army communiqué said Sunday night.

The communiqué said the man, an employee of the office of American Military Government for Germany who was not identified by name, was taking photographs of election activities in the Russian zone, accompanied by two American women, when he was ordered to follow a Russian motor patrol to the office of the Allied Kommandantur.

He was shot, the communiqué said, when he failed to follow the Russian vehicle as it crossed an intersection. Pending notification of next of kin, identity of the slain man was withheld.

Equitable Allocation Of Houses Will Be Made At Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI—Allocation of Wartime Housing Ltd. units now under construction at Port Alberni will be made on an equitable rating system which as far as possible eliminates favoritism or injustice, the Crown company has indicated.

D. H. Black, district supervisor of Wartime Housing Ltd., or his assistant will visit Port Alberni to complete arrangements for the allocation of the houses. Approximately a month before the houses are ready for occupancy, a part-time administrator will be appointed to handle the allocation. The houses will be allotted after an investigation based on the equitable rating system.

War veterans who were residents of Port Alberni before enlistment may be given special consideration on the request of the City Council if they are in a high category in other respects.

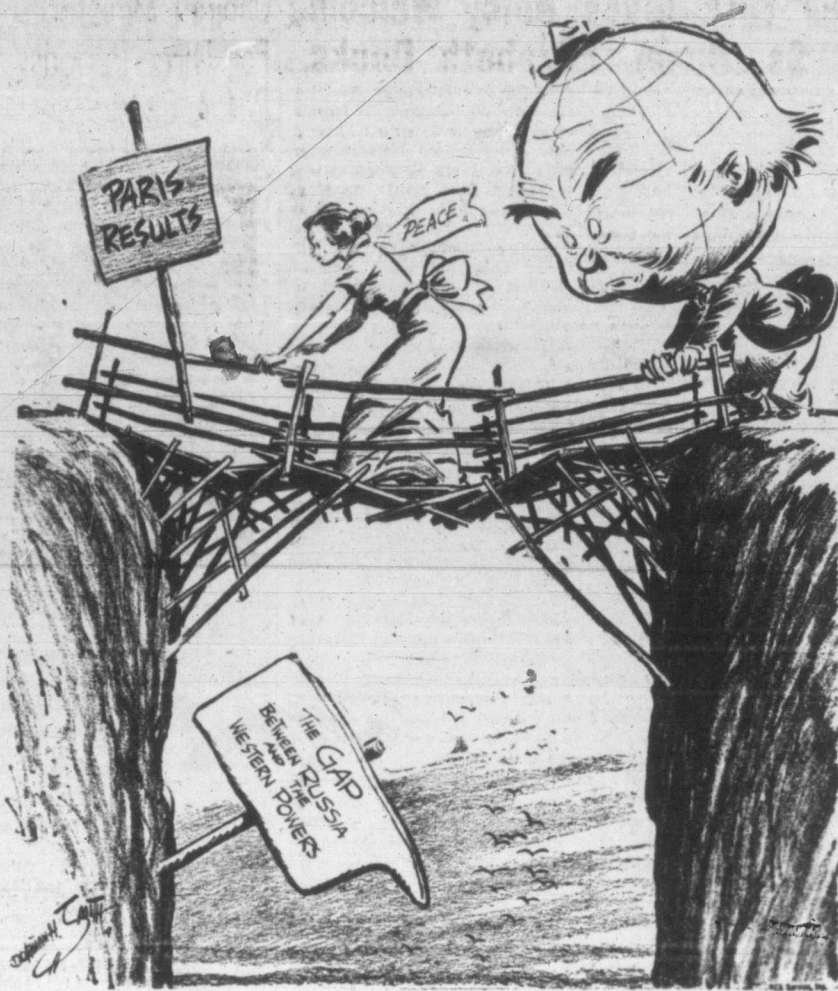

Too Few Enrollments For Nanaimo School

NANAIMO — Enrollment for the Nanaimo District School Board's 1946-47 night school term has been insufficient to meet requirements for opening the school.

To operate the school without a loss, at least three classes would be necessary, and 15 persons would be required in each class. Enrollment by classes was: Music, one; art, 11; gardening, three; English, one; foremanship training, one; woodwork, 14; metal work, four; shorthand, eight; bookkeeping, three; typing, 19, and automobile mechanics, eight.

During the war, night classes were successfully operated by the Canadian Legion in Nanaimo, but soldiers from Nanaimo military camp filled the classes. Another attempt to open a night school is planned for next year.

Murder Charged After Party Row

MOOSE JAW, Sask. (CP) — Richard Donald Stone, 21-year-old Canadian infantry private, was charged with murder of Wilbert Burton, 67, of Moose Jaw, when he appeared in police court here Saturday. Police said Burton was strangled last night following a drinking party.

Police said that Stone, wearing the uniform of the Princess Pats Light Infantry Regiment, was arrested on a drinking charge prior to discovery of the body of Burton.

Stone, whose parents live in Moose Jaw, was remanded until Oct. 25 without bail. An inquest will be held today.

Consider Future Of 4,500 Nazi P.O.W.'s

OTTAWA (CP) — Consideration is being given by the government to the immediate future of some 4,500 German prisoners of war employed on Canadian farms.

While prisoners are being returned to Europe, representations have recently been renewed by agricultural groups to have the prisoners on farms available for some time because of the shortage of farm help. No decision has yet been reached.

At the peak there were about 5,000 prisoners engaged in farm work and some 9,000 in woods operations. There now are no prisoners in the woods.

Anglican W.A. Board Meets At Duncan

DUNCAN — Dr. Marian Sherman and Mrs. E. J. Harris, delegates to the annual meeting of the Dominion Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church, reviewed the Winnipeg sessions at a meeting of the British Columbia Diocesan Board of the Women's Auxiliary, held in Duncan.

About 50 members of Victoria branches and others from Sidney and up-island points attended the meeting.

Mrs. E. W. Neel, vice-president of St. John's W.A., greeted the delegates.

Mrs. A. Roach reported a parcel of bandages had been sent to St. Paul's Hospital, Honan, China, and a mattress had been made for the mission ship Rendezvous.

It was announced that Cmdr. Evelyn Mills, O.B.E., former General Staff Officer in the W.R.C.N.S., and recently appointed Dominion Girls' Supervisor, will visit Vancouver Island early in 1947.

Sidney Product Sent To Eastern Market

SIDNEY — What is believed to be the first full carload of boiler compound ever shipped from west to east across Canada, recently left the Sidney plant of Goddard & Co.

Most of the chemicals for the boiler compound are brought from eastern Canada, compounded at the Sidney factory, and then shipped back to the east to compete with eastern manufacturers in their own market.

Two previous shipments of compound to Montreal were less than a carload each. The latest went to St. John, N.B.

Legion Card Party

LANGFORD — Progressive bridge, 500 and cribbage were played in the lower Legion Hall under the auspices of the Prince Edward Branch Canadian Legion, and its Women's Auxiliary. Prize-winners were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Leggett, Mrs. H. A. Hincks, Mrs. R. Fraser, J. E. Glenn and H. B. Franklin. Mrs. T. Norman, Mrs. W. Maugham and Miss H. Butler served refreshments.

A.Y.P.A. Present Report

LANGFORD — The fortnightly meeting of the Langford Colwood Anglican Young People's Association will be held Thursday at 8 in Colwood Hall. Delegates will report on the recent provincial conference.

LANGFORD BROWNIES

Mrs. N. Pritchard visited the Brownie meeting held at the school, conducted by Mrs. C. F. Holmgren, Brownie Owl.

The following girls were enrolled: Kay Waby, Deane Graham, Deane DesRochers, Shirley Gettling, Angela Holmgren, Marilyn Rantz, Dolores Waddell, Carolyn Erlocker and Penelope Gray.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Hope was abandoned Saturday for two Winnipeg brothers, Elizear, 20, and Rene Thiebert, 27, missing in the Ontario bush country east of Sioux lookout since Oct. 10. They went to hunt squirrels and a severe blizzard struck the district.

Premier Of Iran Reshuffles Cabinet

TEHRAN (AP) — Premier Ahmed Qavam Saturday reshuffled his cabinet, retaining the Ministries of Foreign Affairs and Interior for himself and sending his top aide and former Propaganda Minister, Prince Mozaffar Firooz, to Moscow as Iran's ambassador.

The new cabinet, evidently more nationalistic than its predecessor, was made known only a few days after the settlement of a revolt of Qashgai tribesmen in southern Iran. The tribe had demanded a larger representation in the Majlis (Parliament).

13 Children Gassed

HULL, Que. (CP) — Thirteen children of one family were treated at a hospital Saturday after awakening to the cries of the youngest—eight-months-old Pierre—and finding their home filled with coal gas.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Emile Seguin, are visiting in Toronto. The eldest of the 13, 20-year-old Jeannie, had been left in charge of the family. Only one, Paul, 13, was admitted to hospital.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

BERLIN'S FIRST FREE ELECTION IN 14 years has produced an important result. It has revealed that the people of the once proud capital of the former Third Reich favor democratic government on the western pattern. Under the secret ballot system yesterday they were asked to decide between four parties—the Social Democratic Party, the Christian Democratic Union, the Socialist Unity Party (Soviet backed), and the Liberal Democratic Party. With only a few of the 2,284 precincts to be heard from as this is written, the Social Democrats were leading with 948,743 votes, while the Christian Democratic Union followed with 431,916, the Socialist Unity Party with 383,182, and the Liberal Democratic Party with 182,097. On the basis of this computation the Social Democrats seem to have collected nearly 49 per cent of the vote compared to the Socialist Unity Party's 19.6 per cent. In other words, and contrary to some pre-election predictions, the Moscow-sponsored group ran a rather poor third—and was beaten in all of the four zones, in its own by 309,297 to 214,314.

Compared with the distribution of votes in the last free election before the first in the Hitler regime in 1933, when at least nine recognized parties were competing, yesterday's division of political strength is somewhat easier to calculate. To all intents and purposes, the Social Democratic Party, while inclining to "left of centre," is nothing like so extreme as the Socialist Unity Party—which, of course, is mainly composed of Communists of varying degrees. The Christian Democratic Union is what might be termed a "centre" party aiming to unite both Catholic and Protestant elements behind a program which will preserve a capitalist economy with a Christian basis. This group, incidentally, denies any clericalist tendency. The Liberal Democratic Party, on the other hand, is still more conservative, but differs chiefly from the Christian Democratic Union in avoiding all emphasis on religion.

Not the least important revelation of this first free election is the fact that the voting was both heavy and orderly. This in itself would seem to bespeak a general desire on the part of an electorate numbering nearly 2,350,000 to establish representative and responsive government in the Berlin area of Germany. What coalition as between the non-Communist groups will be arranged to counter the Socialist Unity Party remains to be seen. Since there is now a fairly clear alignment, however, regardless of the emphatic rebuff to the "extreme left," it should not be difficult for an intelligent and disillusioned electorate to work out a practical agreement that will make for progress in the re-establishment of local administrations.

WHO IS TO JUDGE?

A SEEMINGLY UNIMPORTANT SENTENCE in President Truman's criticism of the events leading to de-control of prices for meat was connected with the effect on marketing during the lapse between June, when price control was off and August when it was re-imposed. Producers, he intimated, rushed cattle to the market to take advantage of the expected rise in price caused by pent-up demand; the cattle were thin.

It has been roughly estimated that they were each on an average 100 pounds short of their normal slaughtering weight. What this loss of weight meant to the producer and consumer is, as a matter of fact, one of the most important factors in connection with the marketing of livestock. Generally the lowest slaughtering period in any year is April when births are highest. The highest is in October and births are lowest in December. The slaughter in October is only 3.7 per cent higher than in April, but births in October are 13 per cent lower than in April. These figures are important because they are related to the feeding of stock and feeding is related to the state of the crops. All through May, June, July and August, the average slaughtering in Chicago varies within only 1 per cent on an average of 275,000 head of cattle marketed monthly. If these animals weigh 100 pounds less than the average, there would be a monthly shortage of 13,750 tons of meat. According to grade, prices are spread between $6.50 and $12.50 per 100 pounds in a typical week.

Under these circumstances the producer must use his own judgment when to market his stock. He might judge it better to market thin stock because prices were high for feed, or, if fodder prices were comparatively low, he might think it better to fatten his stock. The flow to market is thus related to the date of birth and the availability of feedstuffs especially in the third year after birth, which is when beef would be in its prime if all went smoothly. For the last three years, first the war and price controls would upset all his calculations, except that there was an infinite demand for all he could raise. Then when wage control, which affects all his costs including transportation, slaughtering and packing, wiggled waggled around the compass, to hold or not to hold his mature stock would provide a first class "headache."

THE DARDANELLES

AT LEAST THREE NATIONS OBJECT to Russia's plan for the future of the Dardanelles. These are Turkey—the most directly involved—the United Kingdom and the United States, the former protesting against any intrusion on her national sovereignty. The Soviet Union would revise the 10-year-old Montreux Convention by vesting full authority over these highly strategic straits in the Black Sea powers. Reduced to a few words, the Kremlin would like to strike a bargain with the Ankara government for the erection of such fortifications as the Moscow oligarchy deems essential for the establishment and preservation of Russia's political influence in this highly-strategic area of the Mediterranean. Both London and Washington have registered their protests in formal fashion. It now remains to be seen what Mr. Molotov will have to say either to the other Foreign Ministers in New York or at the meeting of the General Assembly of the United Nations. Both Great Britain and the United States are firm in their conviction that the Straits should be open to merchant ships of all nations, that they should be open to war vessels of the Black Sea nations—Turkey, Russia, Bulgaria, and Romania—while warships of other nations should be permitted to pass through only if given special permission. In other words, in order to compose the Anglo-American view with that of the Soviet Union, it is proposed that the discussion of revision of the Montreux Convention of 1936 shall be conducted in an atmosphere of common sense—and particularly in the light of the fact that, for example, if Turkey were attacked and found herself unable to defend the Dardanelles, the forces of the United Nations Security Council could move in to her support with such speed as might be necessary. If the Soviet Union does not agree to this formula, suspicion of the Kremlin's attitude is bound to persist.

IN CIVILIAN ROLE

THE BRILLIANCE OF THE PERSONALITIES included on the passenger list and the rousing welcome accorded the vessel as she reached New York have lent a mark of distinction to the first trans-Atlantic crossing of the liner Queen Elizabeth since reconversion. The floating giant that was rushed into war service before she had been completed for luxury transport has apparently lived up to expectations and has marked successfully the initial bid of Britain to regain her position as the peacetime carrier of tourists and distinguished guests between two continents. For months to come, of course, it will be no task to sell accommodation in her. But when the carrying trade becomes more highly competitive, the Elizabeth will have established her position firmly and will be meeting the frankly expressed aim of attracting the dollars Britain needs for her postwar recovery.

But the Elizabeth will continue to be something more than a great seaborne hotel. The six years that have elapsed since she slipped quietly out of her home harbor to play a vital role in the war effort have given her a relatively brief but magnificent tradition. Passengers who filled her staterooms and luxury saloons during the five-day crossing could not but be impressed by the fact that "Kilroy was here," and with him thousands upon thousands of men whose contribution to the common cause made possible the sailing of the Queen in the peacetime role for which she was originally designed. In the years to come, the Elizabeth will be a suave, urbane personality in herself. But, important as she will be in that role, the core of her character has already been formed. And no future guest of world renown will add greater lustre to her history than the earlier passengers who traveled not for relaxation, personal business, or the more refined duties of state, but for the accomplishment of a task which now permits the ship to serve those purposes.

ON THE RECORD

ONCE AGAIN THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES have received an expression of Russia's desire to contribute to the success of the United Nations and to the well-being of peoples great and small. This time the statement comes from Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov, as he prepares for the sessions of the Assembly and the Council of Foreign Ministers. To some ears the words from those lips will sound strange, and skeptics will await events in the policy the Soviet spokesman intends to pursue before giving them full credence. But at all events, the opinion voiced by Mr. Molotov corresponds to the sentiments expressed by Russians from the exalted rank of Generalissimo Stalin to the plain folk with whom John Strohman discussed the question of peace and the future during his travels in the U.S.S.R. It is generally conceded that Russia does not want war, cannot, in fact, afford war. But the incidents in Paris as elsewhere have not disclosed that spirit of trust and compromise by which the interests of peace and accord are fostered.

None but the most naive would assume that Mr. Molotov's statement, as he prepared to leave the liner Queen Elizabeth, precluded the developments of disagreements at the important meetings in which he is to participate. Nor should it be forgotten that the senior members of the Slav bloc are entitled to their own ideas on how the cause of peace is to be served. It will, nevertheless, be hoped that the words of Mr. Stalin's chief representative imply a more conciliatory attitude for events to come, and that the exercise of the Soviet veto will not impair progress toward world security in the deliberations at New York.

If a nation's first right is to preserve itself, it should be treason for people to make trouble under the leadership of a foreign power's agent.

Bruce Hutchison IN THE AMERICAN TRADITION

THE recent convention of left-wing groups in the United States decided not to form a third party and thus repeat the mistake of Theodore Roosevelt and his friends in 1912. While a third party now is rejected as certain to split the Democratic vote and elect the Republicans, the possibility of coalescing all leftist forces in a single organization later on is not abandoned. This plan is to be studied for the future. For the moment the rebels of the Democratic party apparently intend to work within it and try to capture it.

Third parties in the United States, wedded as it is to the two-party system, have seldom succeeded. The Bull Moose adventure and the failure of the LaFollette Progressives are recent examples. However, established parties can die, as the Federalists and the Whigs died and successful third parties can arise under the right conditions. The Republicans were once a third party, organized almost overnight and generally considered of small account. Under the pressure of the slavery problem and under the leadership of Lincoln they swept to power within four years of their organization. Some day, doubtless, a new party will arise again when the ingredients of leadership and events can nourish it.

WHETHER these ingredients are present in the stuff of American politics now, or are gathering there, it is too early to say. But the origins of the present leftist organization within the Democratic party are clear enough. They could be traced back more than a hundred years, perhaps to Jefferson and later to Jackson, Bryan and Wilson. The most notable phenomenon of American political history is the constant appearance of new movements of protest, usually out of the frontier. If it has a longer history, the present drive for social reform stems directly from Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal of 1933. The forces which now are attempting coalescence believe that they, and they alone, are the custodians and interpreters of the Roosevelt legacy.

Here, in passing, an interesting historical shift may be noted. Whereas movements of reform sprang in the past out of the soil and the agricultural people of the frontier, the strength of the leftist movement today comes out of the cities and the labor unions. It was the ability of Roosevelt to combine these new radical forces with the conservative elements, especially in the agricultural south, that constructed the present Democratic administration, now the oldest in history—a magnificent mixing of opposites, a supreme act of politics. And it is this coalition which the new leftist drive threatens to break and thus assure the administration's end.

FOR the present, the radical groups hope to avoid such a break. They want the Democratic party, unsatisfactory as it is to them, re-elected in the Congressional poll of November at least, and probably in the Presidential poll of 1948, though this latter point obviously is not settled yet. They are in revolt against the administration but they consider the Republican alternative far worse. They hope, in fact, to get along with the Democratic party for the time being and, if they cannot capture it, may finally break with it and establish a party of their own.

This strategy, as it unfolds, may finally build a powerful new party of the left but for the moment it deepens the troubles of the administration and may prove fatal to it. Apparently the groups of the left, whose chief spokesmen are Mr. Henry Wallace and Senator Claude Pepper, will vote the Democratic ticket this November and may vote it again in 1948 but the question is whether they will put behind the administration the organizing force which they supplied to Roosevelt in 1944 and which undoubtedly saved him from defeat. By getting out a huge labor vote then, the radical forces beat Mr. Dewey's very great following by a fairly narrow margin. In their present humor of discontent, which Mr. Wallace has brought out into the open, will these forces get out the vote in November and in 1948? That is the great immediate question in American domestic politics.

OBVIOUSLY the task is more difficult now than it was in 1944. Then there was the magic Roosevelt to reconcile discordant elements, and the over-riding appeal of a great wartime leader during the final crisis of the war. Today there is no Roosevelt and no war. There is Mr. Truman, greatly damaged by the Wallace affair and carrying all the inherited burdens of an administration now 13 years old; and there is, in place of wartime unity, deep social struggle. There is something else, more significant—the obvious conservative trend of an electorate which has not yet digested the Roosevelt revolution completely and seeks a breathing spell before going forward in this direction.

Whatever else may be said of this situation of flux, the prospects of the administration—unless the Republicans fall into the error of underestimating it and nominating another Harding—are not excessively bright.

Quoting

What an extraordinary number of American plots seem to require drunkenness.—Prof. Cyril M. Joad, British Broadcasting Corp., on American film censorship.

I am convinced that the great majority of employers and labor leaders are not out to "bust" or "hamstring" or take over the other. But they can do that without intending to do so by fighting for their own survival in ways which endanger the survival of the other.—Prof. E. Wight Bakke, director Yale University Labor and Management Centre.

GLOBAL SURVEY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Foreign Affairs Analyst

The Moscow Pravda (official Communist Party publication) charges that American and Turkish diplomats have been participating in "extraordinarily crooked secret talks" on the future of the Dardanelles.

The Big Three are approaching a showdown over the serious differences between the Soviet Union and the Western Allies. And control of the Dardanelles is one of the issues which will help clear up the mystery of how much farther Moscow aims to expand its sphere of dominance.

The Pravda article referred to the fact that Turkey has rejected the Russian demand for a share in the defence of the straits, and that Washington recently had advised the Soviet Union that Uncle Sam didn't intend to be squeezed out of having a voice in the Dardanelles. Britain has made similar representations.

The Pravda piece was by commentator David Zaslowsky. His article was headed "Turkish Pie with Anglo-American Filling," and he asserted the Ankara note was of Anglo-American origin.

The commentator also propounded this question: "After all, where is Turkey? And where are the straits located? We have heard of dollar diplomacy and about diplomacy of the dollar. Maybe the geography of the dollar is beginning to appear with a new division of the continent."

Washington officials who are in a position to know, say State Secretary Byrnes is rapidly lining up an American economic policy to fit in with "a patient but firm" United States attitude towards Russia and her Slav neighbors.

The secretary is said to be forming a proposal to pour several hundred million dollars into Italy, Austria and Greece while choking off American financial help to eastern European countries. Informants in the capital say the American delegation to the recent Paris Peace Conference decided the best policy would be to give all possible help to countries friendly to the United States but refuse aid to those who are unfriendly.

The argument over the Dardanelles will provide an illuminating test case.

Britain and the United States concede Russia's rights to full use of the Dardanelles. The only point at issue is the refusal to give Moscow military domination of the straits.

Instead of the old "hit-and-miss" methods that existed before we had a "Community Chest" we at least are trying to do things "decently and in order." We make many mistakes, but we plead for ourselves the same kind consideration and forgiveness we ask for our less fortunate human beings.

I hope we can have a "big brotherhood" and also a "big sisterhood" behind the "Family Welfare," the "Children's Aid"—Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A. and the S.A. and the other organizations supported by the "Community Chest." Then, I am sure, we shall have "training schools" in B.C. where boys and girls and adults will be redeemed, rehabilitated.

CHANNEL ISLANDERS

In your issue of Oct. 16, Mr. Le Gallais waxed wroth with Beverly Baxter, apparently because he visited the islands, and told us what he saw and heard.

Whatever may be that gentleman's virtues or faults—and we each of us have some of both—the only question seems to be, did Baxter report on what he found there? Apparently he did not find the paradise we have been told about, nor did he find the inhabitants, angels without a shade of fault or error. He did, it appears, step on someone's toes; but if he reported facts, which are stubborn things, then his statements are true, and there is nothing more to be said. How we, or anybody else would have conducted ourselves under a foreign yoke is entirely beside the point.

While your correspondent is carrying a flaming sword in defence of the islanders, perhaps he can tell us: Are the present

The Salvation Army does not participate in Community Chest Funds, and to avoid conflict with the Chest Campaign, has postponed its appeal until next month. The amount required for this great work in Victoria is $35,000, half of which is for the regular activities, and half to go towards the building of Victoria's new citadel, work on which will start with the opening of the Home Front Appeal. Skipper Refuses To Join Union

NEW YORK (AP)—Commander Harry Manning, veteran sea skipper and master of the liner America, says he "would starve" before joining the A.F.L. Masters, Mates' and Pilots' Union, and that he considers a demand for union affiliation "an affront to my constitutional liberties."

Manning made his statement in reply to reports the Norfolk, Va., local of the union had demanded he and his officers join the union before it would permit the refurbished liner to make its first postwar voyage.

U.S. Sardine Industry Suffers $5,000,000 Loss

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $5,000,000 disaster has struck the sardine industry, and the U.S. government confessed today it is mystified as to the cause.

Milton C. James, assistant director of the Fish and Wildlife Service, said in a statement that the Pacific sardine catch, with the season a third of the way along, is "disastrously small"—one of the poorest in history—and already has caused a loss of $5,000,000 to California's commercial fishermen. The catch of salmon and albacore, or white tuna, is also running far below normal.

CARNIVAL

By Dick Turner

"Why, Pet! You baking this time of night?"

'CHEATED' — Col. Burton C. Andrus, commandant of Nuernberg prison, announces to newspapermen awaiting execution of Nazi leaders that one of them, Hermann Goering, has ended his life by suicide shortly before he was to die.

Goering Note Boasted

NUERNBERG (AP)—Hermann Goering in a last burst of bravado wrote a letter telling just how he proposed to commit suicide under the noses of his guards, a high source reported here Friday.

That informant said the letter, addressed to Col. B. C. Andrus, and two more found in his cell would be submitted, probably Monday, to the Allied Control Council in Berlin.

One of the letters, the source said, was addressed to the Reichsmarshal's wife, Emmy Goering, and the other was addressed to the German people, urging them to have courage.

U.S. Army Probing Bomb Explosions In Stuttgart Area

STUTTGART, Germany (AP)—Three bombs exploded Saturday night against government buildings in the Stuttgart area in what United States army investigators called an apparent protest of further proceedings against Hjalmar Schacht, German financier acquitted at Nuernberg.

One bomb exploded against the U.S. military jail, apparently in the belief Schacht was there. Actually he was in a German jail some distance away awaiting a hearing before a German denazification board.

The first bomb exploded on the window sill of the records office of the German denazification board at Backnang, 15 miles northeast of here, where the Germans arrested Schacht. Another exploded on the window sill of a similar office in Stuttgart. No one was injured, although 10 U.S. military police at the jail were shaken up.

The Wuerttemberg-Baden district headquarters of the regional Military Government said records were not destroyed.

Lt. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, deputy U.S. military governor, said in Berlin he believed the bombings were done by "Nazis who hoped to destroy records in the German denazification courts because they feared trial."

5-Year Sentence Follows Fatal Fight

LONDON (CP)—Thomas South, 31-year-old British army sergeant who strangled his wife's paramour in the gleam of a flashlight held by one of his two children, was convicted Friday of manslaughter and sentenced to five years in prison.

The jury took only 15 minutes to decide that South, who had returned from military service in India to try to break up his wife's association with his rival, 47-year-old Herbert Joyce, was innocent of murder.

Adrift In Atlantic 3 Days, 5 Rescued

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Five bearded, hungry occupants of the 36-foot cabin cruiser El Jon were brought ashore late Saturday after three harrowing days adrift in the Atlantic.

After a steak dinner—their first meal in 36 hours—Rev. John S. Gillespie, 55-year-old vicar of an Episcopal church in Philadelphia, told how he had led his companions in prayer for sunshine, abating winds and calm seas while a 40-mile gale blew about them.

A U.S. Coast Guard crash boat brought the five to shore. They had been rescued 58 miles southeast of here.

Disease Traced To Meat From S. America

LONDON (CP)—Outbreaks of hoof and mouth disease in Great Britain were traceable to imports of South American meat, says Dr. N. Ritchie, deputy chief veterinary officer of the Ministry of Agriculture.

He told a veterinarians' conference that most outbreaks of the disease occurred among pigs fed on swill. Examination showed that swill from camps using Canadian and United States meat was free of the disease organism and it finally was traced to swill from camps using South American meat.

Hopes Built On Oil Prospecting In New Lloydminster Field

REGINA (CP)—Canada looks with expectancy today on a thriving infant oil industry which scatters derricks through five wheat-growing townships straddling the Saskatchewan-Alberta border 250 miles northwest of here.

While production in Alberta's Turner Valley oil field slumped from 10,000,000 barrels in 1942 to 6,000,000 in 1945 and is expected to fall to an estimated negligible volume in 1950, the 32 producing wells of the Lloydminster, Sask., field present what experts say may be the centre of one of the largest fields on the continent. Prospecting and drilling are going on apace.

The "baby" was born in Saskatchewan in 1940 when 331 barrels of the "black gold" were pumped. To date this year more than 60,000 barrels have been taken from the field though dumping was limited by lack of refining and storage facilities.

The oil is a heavy type suitable at present only for fuel and is used only by the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific railways. The Turner Field produces a light oil which supplies 90 per cent of gasoline produced in the Dominion. But Canada imports 83 per cent of its gasoline from Texas, Oklahoma, California and South America.

Central Housing Program Advocated

Need for a central housing plan in order to speed up construction of homes for veterans was stressed at a public forum on housing sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Victoria Public Library.

The forum, which was under the chairmanship of E. Gray, featured two films entitled "Housing in Scotland" and "A Place to Live In."

Don MacLeod, chairman of the publicity committee of the Victoria Film Council, reported that many members complained that while commercial construction was going ahead, veterans' homes were not being built.

Others in attendance expressed the opinion the federal housing program had failed and something should be done immediately to alleviate the housing shortage for men who had fought in the war.

Jobs Decreasing In Victoria

A further decrease in job vacancies for men available in Greater Victoria is shown in a report released today by W. D. Rutherford, acting manager of the National Employment Service Office. The report disclosed there were only 587 job vacancies for the week ending last Friday as compared with 671 the previous week and 909 a month ago.

Mrs. J. E. Leonard, woman's supervisor, reported it was quite an effort these days to place women seeking specialized jobs.

She cited the case of a 20-year-old Wren who was seeking a job as dressmaker, but who up till now had been unable to find a job. There was also an experienced woman searching for a position as hotel manageress and another as window dresser, who have been unable to find employment in their respective fields of work.

Although the situation was very much relieved, Mrs. Leonard said there was still a need for waitresses, kitchen help and chambermaids.

Job vacancies for women for the week ending Friday were as follows: Clerical 28, sales 18, domestic 109, laundry and dry cleaning 26, and unskilled workers 27.

Male vacancies were: Clerical 37, sales 33, service workers 63, agriculture 19, logging 52, construction 115, heavy labor 125,

Helen Brumwell Wed At First United

White chrysanthemums and tall white taper candles formed the setting at First United Church for the marriage Saturday evening of Miss Helen Jean Brumwell, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brumwell, Victoria, and Frank Lawrence Crawford, youngest son of Mrs. J. M. Crawford and the late Dr. Crawford of Calgary, Alta.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Hugh McLeod. During the signing of the register, Mrs. R. Nash sang "O Promise Me."

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white slipper satin gown, with sweetheart neckline, lily-point sleeves and fitted bodice. Her embroidered veil cascaded over her graceful skirt and she carried a sheaf of white chrysanthemums. Completing her ensemble she wore a double strand of pearls, the groom's gift.

Her only attendant was her cousin, Mrs. Ed. Sleath, in an aqua marine taffeta gown, with matching ribboned beauty cap and a Colonial bouquet of Tallman roses, carnations and chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centred with the wedding cake and decorated with tall white tapers and white chrysanthemums. Col. J. M. Taylor proposed the toast.

For their honeymoon trip to Seattle, the bride wore a Queen's blue dress and seal coat, with black accessories and corsage bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Do You Feel Nervous And All on Edge?

People suffering from loss of appetite and run-down condition with symptoms of nerve strain often need a nerve and general tonic. Glycerolactin with Vitamin B (1) supplies tonic ingredients. It is especially beneficial for convalescents. By increasing the supply of Vitamin B (1) in the system, appetite is improved and the system thereby built up to normal if the loss of appetite was due to deficiency of Vitamin B (1) in the diet. $1.00 at Cunningham Drug Stores and other drug stores. Joan McKinnon Has Four Attendants
At Wedding

Four maids in pale blue moire were in attendance on Miss Dorothy Joan "Joey" McKinnon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKinnon, 1145 Burdette Avenue, when she became the bride of Arnold James Walker, son of
Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Walker, 2324
Florence Street, Saturday evening. Baskets of white chrysanthemums formed the setting for the lovely candlelit ceremony performed by Dr. Hugh McLeod at First United Church.

The bride chose for her wedding costume a gown of white lace over taffeta fashioned with a square neckline and a long-fitted waist, accentuated over the hips. A Mary Stuart headdress held her full-length embossed veil and she carried a round bouquet of yellow roses, gardenias and heather. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

The groom's sister, Mrs. Austin Cullin, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Betty McKinnon, sister of the bride,
Miss Shirley Anderson and Miss Margaret Loudoun. They carried muffs to match their gowns, and their headresses were gold bandeaus of chrysanthemums, repeated in their bouquets.

Best man was Austin Cullin, brother-in-law of the groom and Darrell Popham, Done Wood-

house, Jack Findlay and Bob Dee were ushers. Jack Smith presided at the organ and Arthur Stringer was the soloist.

Mrs. McKinnon, wearing a fuchsia dress with black accessories, and Mrs. Walker in a blue frock and black accessories, assisted the couple in welcoming 150 guests at a reception held at the Y.W.C.A. The bride's table was decorated with yellow and white flowers and greenery, and centred with a three-tier wedding cake flanked by white candles, arranged by Mrs. A. H.
Anderson. Hugh Farquhar proposed the toast to the bride.

Following a honeymoon up-island and in Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Walker will reside at Sidney. For traveling, the bride chose a blue crepe dress with black doe-suede topcoat, black hat with blue ostrich plume trim and black accessories.

SPOUSES SELDOM REGAIN WIFE'S LOVE AFTER SPREE OF PHILANDERING

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am a man of 30. My wife is 28. We have been married 10 years and have four adorable children. All during our married life I have stepped out on her, and especially I have done so during the past 18 months.

Now I am tired of painting the town red. I want to be with my family and have the respect of my children as they grow up. I want the love and respect of my wife, but I am afraid I have lost that forever. She is an ideal wife and mother. She never nags. She never reproaches me. She goes about her duties quietly and lovingly. She makes our home life pleasant, but I know she would not tolerate me for a moment if it were not for the children's sake. There is neither love nor respect in her eyes when she looks at me.

The times when I would go off on my pleasures, leaving her alone, have left their mark on her and now she quietly refuses any invitation to go with me, even though it is to places she would like to go.

Is there any help for this situation?

A PENITENT HUSBAND.

KILLED WIFE'S LOVE
Answer: I do not think so.
There is no way of bringing life back into a corpse. You have killed your wife's love and respect for you and nothing that you can do or say will ever bring back her faith in you, or revive her love.

Nothing in all the psychology of men is so strange as their belief that they can humiliate their wives by their affairs with other women; that they can be traitors to them; that they can neglect them; that they can make them an object of pity or derision by being the forlorn creatures who sit at home by their lonely fireside while their husbands are off spending their money and disporting themselves with other women, yet who believe that in spite of the insults they have piled upon their wives that they will love them still and wait for them with open arms to come back to them when they are tired of bought women.

Often the neglected wife does wait for her husband to come back because she is dependent upon him and knows no way of making a living for herself.

Often still she keeps up the pretense of keeping up a home of which he is the head because of the children. She wants them to respect their father, and she hides his infidelities as well as she can.

But the truant husband who thinks he can go back to a wife who still loves him befools himself. What he has killed he cannot bring to life again. The dead are dead.

"NOTHING BUT FURS"

Navy Wants 3,000 For R.C.N. And 16,000 For Reserve

A campaign for 3,000 recruits for the permanent force and 16,000 for the reserve is being opened this month by the Royal Canadian Navy. Naval Service Headquarters at Ottawa announced.

Unprecedented opportunities for service at sea or in the air are being offered. Stripped to peacetime requirements, the navy has retained its newest and best ships and aircraft for its postwar fleet. Only 400 of the 100,000 "hostilities only" officers and men remain, and will have been demobilized by the end of the year.

The new pay rates, effective Oct. 1 and in line with those paid in the other services, represent an increase over prewar pay rates for new entries.

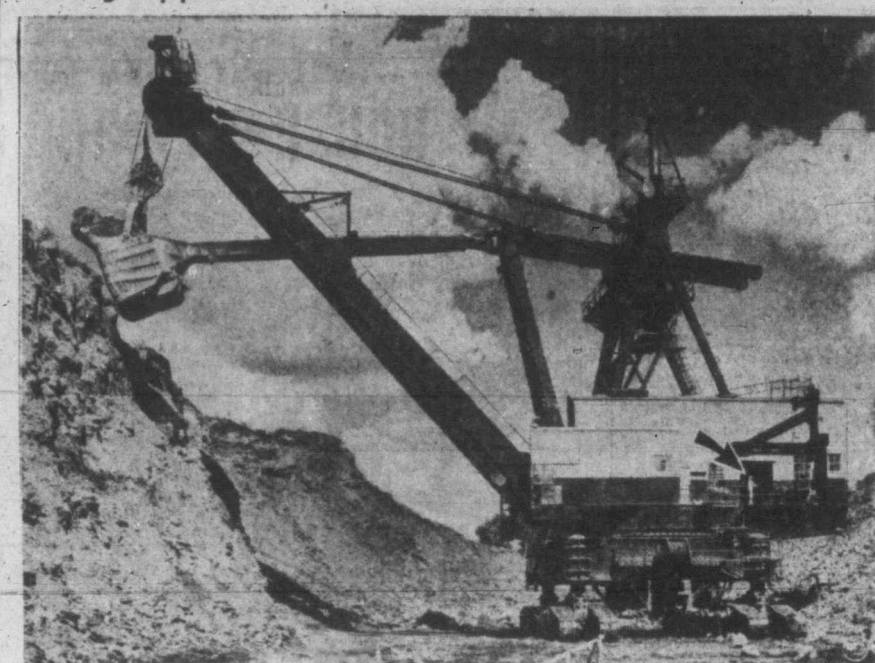

The new training allowance paid to reserve personnel will also represent an increase over prewar rates. Pay for divisional drills performed ashore at a naval division, or afloat in a training craft which is tender to a naval division, will be based on the pay of rank or rating and, in the case of men, will include pay of the trade group for which they have qualified. Full daily rate will be given for drill lasting six hours or more, and one-half the daily rate for drills of lesser duration, but exceeding two hours.

Reserve officers in command of naval divisions or university naval training divisions will be able to draw a maximum of 26 days' pay of rank during a training year, while other reserve officers, not in command, may earn up to 16 days' pay of rank. In the case of men, the limit of pay for divisional training is 16 days' pay of rating and trade group.

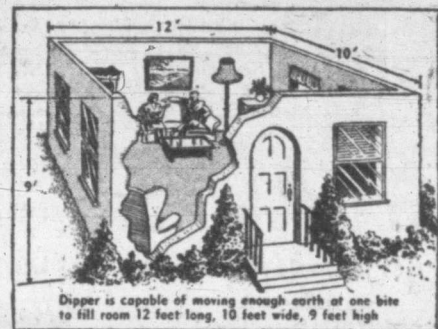

Officers and men of the reserve are required to take 14 days' full-time naval training each year and are paid at the full daily rate for this. In the case of reservists in the mercantile marine, who are unable to attend divisional drills because of their employment afloat, 32 days' pay will be granted for each two years' service on the reserve active list, providing they complete 28 days' naval training during the period.

Local recruiting offices for R.C.N. and R.C.N. (R) are located at 1238 Government Street, and are under the command of Lt.-Cmdr. W. M. Gage, staff officer recruiting and reserve.

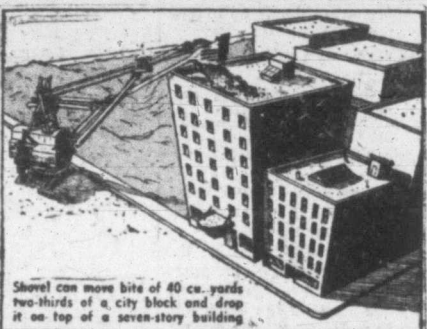

The Big Dipper

The photo, above, and sketches, below, give you some idea of the size and performance of the world's biggest mechanical shovel. Note comparative size of man, indicated by arrow. Recently completed by the Marion Power Shovel Company, of Marion, Ohio, the giant is now in operation stripping coal at Cadiz, Ohio. War-developed steels of new tensile strength permit a handle and dipper design 30,000 pounds lighter than could be achieved with prewar materials. Entirely operated by electricity, the huge machine consumes power equal to that of a community of 3,000.

Dipper is capable of moving enough earth of one bite to fill room 12 feet long, 10 feet wide, 9 feet high

Shovel can move bite of 40 cu. yards two-thirds of a city block and drop it on top of a seven-story building

School-Leaving Age Of 17 Asked For Canada

CHAPLIN, Sask. (CP)—A resolution requesting the federal government to set up a department of education to standardize grade levels and university credits throughout Canada was passed at closing session at the week-end of the Herbert Superintendency Teachers' Convention.

The resolution suggests students moving from one province to another are handicapped because of different standards of education.

The convention recommended the school-leaving age be raised to 17 years.

Molotov Promises Soviet Aid In Preserving Peace At U.N. Session

NEW YORK (AP)—Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov of Russia promised today that the Soviet delegation to the United Nations would contribute its part toward strengthening world peace.

"The delegation of the Soviet Union, will contribute to insuring that the work of the United Nations' Assembly and the Council of Foreign Ministers is successful and is accomplished in the interests of strengthening of peace and the well-being of peoples, great and small," Mr. Molotov said as he arrived on the liner Queen Elizabeth.

He was accompanied by Foreign Minister Dmitri Manuilsky and Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky of Russia. Mr. Molotov made his statement to more than 150 representatives of the press, and radio aboard the Queen Elizabeth a few minutes before the giant liner docked.

Senator Tom Connally of Texas, chairman of the U.S. Senate foreign relations committee, returning from the Paris Peace Conference, told reporters: "I deplore the talk of another war. Russia doesn't want another war; Stalin and Molotov do not want another war."

"The Paris Peace Conference

accomplished substantial results. We are not secure all that we desired, and Russia did not get all that it was looking for. "On the whole, the conference was a success. It tears the curtain from secret diplomacy—it lets the people of the world know what is going on."

Two Ex-Airmen And Sister Open Smart Yates St. Lunch Counter

A new and modern lunch counter has been added to that fast-growing business district above theatre row.

Joseph Cedar recently discharged from the R.C.A.F. with three and a half years' overseas service, and his brother Walter, also R.C.A.F., and sister, Ann, have opened the Polar B'ar at 852 Yates Street.

Completely modern in equipment, fixtures and decoration, the Polar B'ar is sure to become a popular rendezvous.

Pastries are made daily on the premises by Walter Cedar, the chef. Hot lunches and fountain service is offered from 7.30 a.m. until 11.30 p.m.

Ice cream is manufactured on the premises by the latest equipment, under the supervision of Ann Cedar.

The two brothers and their sister are unanimously agreed that cleanliness, friendly service and good food shall dominate their policy of operation at the Polar B'ar.

C.C.L. Shipbuilders Adopt Program To Aid B.C. Plants

The General Shipyard Workers' Federation of British Columbia (C.C.L.) wound up a two-day annual convention here Sunday with a four-point program to aid shipbuilding on the Pacific coast.

The program included the following requests:

1. That the provincial government ask the federal government to consider legislation to restrict coastal shipping trade to vessels registered in Canada or built in Canada.
2. That replacement of obsolete vessels be only with ships built in Canada.
3. That Canadian shipowners be discouraged from having repair work and ship construction done abroad.
4. That a maritime commission be set up to control Canadian shipping.

The 22 delegates from Victoria, Vancouver, Prince Rupert and other C.C.L. shipyard unions also passed a resolution demanding the government refuse to grant the request of west coast lumber operators for an increase in lumber price ceilings. This resolution also asked a Royal Commission to investigate the lumber industry to insure sufficient lumber to build Canadian homes.

Another measure was designed to prevent, where they exist, black market operations in foodstuffs, clothing materials and the manipulation of prices by seizing such goods and placing them on sale at prices guaranteeing a "legitimate profit to the manufacturer."

Administration of the Workmen's Compensation Act was also under fire at the convention which asked an immediate investigation.

Another resolution asked that the provincial government "take over all electric power companies in the province."

Teacher and practitioner of Christian Science, Samuel Greenwood, 1372 Craigdarroch Road, passed away Sunday at the age of 85 years. Funeral services will be held at 10.30 Tuesday from the chapel of Sands Mortuary, followed by cremation at Royal Oak.

The author of the book "Footsteps of Israel," the late Mr. Greenwood, was a student of the Bible and of Christian metaphysics. He was born in London, Ont., and in 1896 came out to Vancouver. In 1900 he moved to Victoria and pioneered in the formation of the Christian Science Church in this city.

He is survived by his wife, a son, Donald V. Greenwood, North Vancouver; two daughters, Bessie, in Vancouver, and Mrs. G. M. Conway of Chico, Calif.

U.S. Democratic Party Strength At Lowest Point In 16 Years

By American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N.J.—Democratic Party strength throughout the nation has reached its lowest point in 16 years.

That was the situation in the first week of October, one month before the election. Whether the same situation will prevail at the time of the election, future surveys will indicate.

The serious trouble with Democratic Party faces is shown in five continuing surveys on five separate and important aspects of the political situation. While each of these trend studies deals with entirely different factors, they each have a bearing on the campaign, and they all point in one direction—to a definite and nation-wide trend away from the Democratic Party.

REPUBLICAN TREND

This trend was of such major proportions in early October as to indicate Republican control of the House if the election had been held then.

Here is what the five different continuing surveys show on these five aspects of the political situation. The index of Congressional voting sentiment is based on the question:

"If you were voting for Congressman today, would you be most likely to vote for the Democrat, the Republican or the candidate of some other party?"

All who classified themselves as independent voters were asked how they plan to vote in the Congressional election Nov. 5, and also what party they would favor if a presidential election were being held.

Their party preferences for Congress are 41 per cent Democratic, 59 per cent Republican. As for preferences in a presidential race, the following table gives the recent trend of sentiment among independent voters, with their vote in the 1944 and 1940 elections for comparison.

Major Party Vote	% Dem.	% Rep.
1940 election	41%	59%
1944 election	41%	59%
Aug. 1946	41%	59%
Today	41%	59%

The trend of party strength in the nation in terms of a presidential election follows, with actual figures given for 1944.

DEMOCRATS LOSE

"If a presidential election were being held today, which party would you vote for—the Democrat or Republican?"

Major Party Vote	% Dem.	% Rep.
1944 election	41%	59%
Aug. 1946	41%	59%
Feb. 1946	41%	59%
May	41%	59%
July	41%	59%
September	41%	59%
Today	41%	59%

The change in attitude toward the way Mr. Truman has handled his job is reflected in the following:

"Do you approve or disapprove of the way Truman is handling his job as President?"

Major Party Vote	% Dem.	% Rep.
July, 1946	41%	59%
October	41%	59%
November	41%	59%
Feb. 1946	41%	59%
April	41%	59%
July	41%	59%
Today	41%	59%

In sounding sentiment on public issues, the poll asked voters, first: "What do you personally regard as the most important issue which should be discussed in the coming November election campaign?" All who named an issue—and of course many different issues were named—were then asked: "Which party do you think will do a better job of handling the problem you have just mentioned—the Democrat or the Republican?"

The vote of those expressing an opinion:

Democrats can handle problem better, 40 per cent.

Republicans can handle problem better, 60 per cent.

Prior to the 1944 presidential election a similar poll found that among people expressing a preference for one party or another as "best able to handle the issues" uppermost in their minds, 55 per cent chose the Democratic Party, 45 per cent the Republican Party.

Alpine Climbers Had Exciting Trip To Della Falls

Members of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Alpine Club experienced difficulty in returning to their log cabin on a recent expedition to Della Falls and Big Interior Mountain, situated on the outskirts of Strathcona Park.

The party, led by Dr. W. E. M. Mitchell, an experienced Alpine climber, was unable to reach shelter before darkness fell. Unable to see, the party had to light a fire and by using its light as a beacon made various attempts to locate their cabin. They finally found it late in the evening.

Two women participated in the expedition into the rough mountain country. They were Miss Jean MacDonald and Miss Molly Crickmay. The other member was F. E. Tuckey.

Describing the Della Falls district as beautiful, unspoiled country, Dr. Mitchell said a road should be built to Strathcona Park.

"It would attract thousands of additional tourists to the island and the road would pay for itself in no time," he said.

Shapes Of Things To Come

When that brave new postwar world finally arrives, people will enjoy such things as the super-streamlined bike and midget auto pictured here, say their sponsors. The modern bicycle is on display at the "Britain Can Make It" exhibition in London. Actually lighter than a conventional bike, it has a shaft drive instead of a chain, a radio and a dynamo that assists the rider to climb hills. The midget "Super-Kar" was designed by Louis R.

Make Plaster Plaques For Science Club or Home

If you would like to have an emblem-plaque for your science club, basketball team or to honor some family member, try this method. It eliminates much of the tedious carving of an original design, and dispenses with the usual method of making a master pattern.

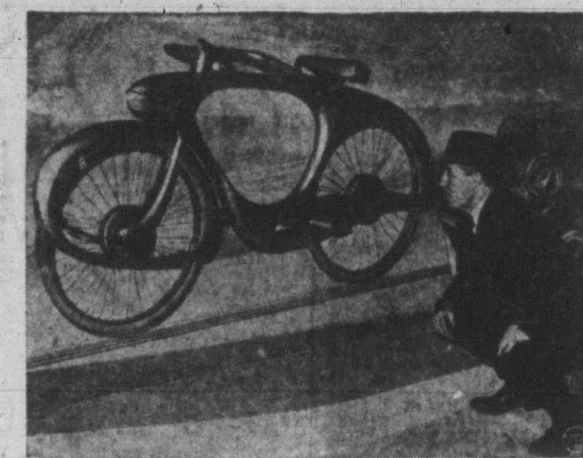

Save the paraffin from the tops of jelly jars. When you have enough, clarify the wax by putting it in a pot; add water and heat. Stir carefully. The melted paraffin will float on the surface of the hot water. Set it aside to cool. When cold, lift the solid block of paraffin from the water and scrape off any dirt which remains attached to the undersurface. Most of the dirt will have settled to the bottom of the pot.

If you have clean paraffin, the clarifying process will not be necessary. It is important to remember, however, because the same method can be used to clarify kitchen fats for use in cooking.

To make the plaque, obtain a wooden box or a shallow cake pan. Put the paraffin into it and melt over a low flame. Shut off the heat and allow the paraffin to cool. As soon as the surface becomes hard, press into it a piece of rope, preferably of the twisted fiber variety, arrange in the pattern you want to produce. Lay it on the surface first, adjust, then push the rope into the surface of the paraffin to almost half its diameter. With pieces of rope, you can also form letters, script writing, symbolic designs and borders.

You also can add some other pattern, for example, the small shield in the illustration. Cut it from a block of wood and press it into the surface of the paraffin. The small spots within the shield may be formed by half-round buttons. They are made by laying the buttons on the surface of the paraffin and pressing them down with the wooden block. The surface of the block also can be carved if desired.

Allow the paraffin mold to cool. Then carefully remove those articles which were used to form the designs. If you damage any part of the design during this operation, it can be repaired simply by working more paraffin into the damaged section with the warmed point of a knife.

Now make a creamy mixture of plaster of Paris and water. Pour it into the mold to a depth of about half the thickness of the finished plaque. Dip some strips of rags or bags into the plaster of Paris mixture. Lay them on the surface of the plaster you already poured, add a loop of

Make Plans For Use Of Board Offices

Plans are already being made for the inclusion of the present School Board offices in the administration of the City Hall, should the School Board vacate in favor of moving to Craigdarroch, Ald. H. M. Diggon, chairman of the efficiency committee, said today.

"Those offices would be ideal for committee rooms, which we have needed badly for some time," Ald. Diggon commented, "and would aid greatly in improving the administrative efficiency of the Council and staff here."

rope or wire for hanging and complete the pouring operation. The cloth strips will reinforce the plaster plaque and prevent break-

age. When the plaster is dry, knock the entire plaque out of the mold and paint it in the colors desired. The same pattern mold may be used over and over or the design can be obliterated completely merely by heating and solidifying again.

You can also use soap carvings, small statues, tin cans, wooden boxes, dry leaves and flowers to aid in producing the finished plaque; the possibilities of design are almost endless.

Shaw Would Have Given Nazis Lots Of Poison

LONDON (Reuter)—George Bernard Shaw said in a letter published in the Times of London today he would have given Nazi leaders sufficient morphia to poison themselves and so "spare us the disgusting job of hanging them."

Mr. Shaw's letter said that "among the insanities that war always produces should be classed the general assumption that the suicide of Goering has been a defeat for the Nuernberg tribunal and the victorious powers, and that the most rigorous inquiry must be made as to who connived at it by some relaxation of the manacled and spy-hole inspection to which the prisoner was subjected. One would suppose that his evasion of the rope threatens us with a Third World War."

"Had the matter been in my hands, I should have supplied all the condemned men with a liberal supply of morphia tablets and given them every opportunity of sparing us the disgusting job of hanging them."

KAMLOOPS, B.C. (CP)—The $240,000 city of Kamloops waterworks extension and improvement program, to be undertaken this winter, was approved by ratepayers Saturday. The vote was 426 for and 48 against, slightly less than half of the registered ratepayers cast ballots.

Former Airman Shows Pioneer Spirit

A portable sawmill operated by R. C. Stanyer, Sidney, is making the ambitious postwar plans of R.C.A.F. veteran Edwin A. Lyons come true in a hurry. Despite warnings that his plans were impracticable, 28-year-old Ed Lyons, an Aero-engine mechanic for five years, secured 68 acres of land through the Veterans' Land Act last year, and started felling trees that covered most of the property.

Today the trees are being converted into lumber by the portable sawmill. Some of the lumber and the sawdust Mr. Lyons, seen in the background on his new tractor, is selling to finance the clearing of the land, and some of the lumber he will use to construct his own buildings. He plans to go into mixed farming.

Mr. Stanyer, operating the sawmill in the picture, says it will cut logs up to 30 inches thick and 28 feet long. It will turn out from 4,500 to 6,000 feet of lumber a day, and towed by the tractor which powers it, can go right into the woods to turn small growth into lumber.

60 Will Attend Boys' Parliament

Sixty youths are expected to attend the Older Boys' Parliament, to be convened in the Legislative Assembly Hall here Dec. 27 for a four-day meeting. It was reported here today.

Election of the youthful "legislators" is expected to be held in church and other organizations throughout the province shortly, returns being in by Nov. 25.

The B.C. Older Boys' Parliament is one of six held in Canada, others being held in Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and the Maritimes. Plans for the parliament are being worked out by a committee composed of a cabinet of youths and adult advisers.

Archie Macaulay of Vancouver will be premier. Oliver Howard, deputy premier, is from Eburne.

Other members of the cabinet: Dave Rea, minister of finance; Harold Patton, provincial secretary; Silvan Villet, minister of devotional affairs; Fred Davies, minister of hobbies; Ian McGlashan and Bill Sutherland, ministers without portfolio, all of Vancouver; Bob Wallace of Armstrong, minister of publications; Grant Bracewell of Victoria, minister of interprovincial relations; Bob Thurston, Port Moody; Huber Venable, Oliver, and Bill Morris, Prince George.

Arrangements will be made to billet the youthful legislators as much as possible during the life of the parliament.

Numerous problems concerning youth are expected to be discussed at the parliament, which is sponsored by the Christian Education Consultative Council of British Columbia.

Rangers Show Power In Defeating Detroit

WEEK-END SCORES

Toronto 6, Detroit 3.
Canadiens 1, Boston 1.
Rangers 3, Detroit 1.
Boston 2, Chicago 2.

The National Hockey League squads were off from the barrier after the first week-end of the marathon 60-game season and everything seemed mostly according to form, except for a surprising revival by the humble New York Rangers and the dismal showing of Detroit Red Wings.

Rangers, dormant of the league last year, when they won only 13 games, bounced up from a 3 to 0 licking by Montreal Canadiens last Thursday to down Detroit Red Wings, 3 to 1, Sunday night, right in motor-town.

It was Detroit's second setback in a row, as they lost, 6 to 3, to Maple Leafs in Toronto Saturday night.

Elsewhere, it looked just like a continuation of last season.

Boston Bruins made their debut in Montreal Saturday night, battling to a 1 to 1 tie in a tight, clean game featured by the effortless outmanning of those two masters of the art, Bill Durnan of Canadiens and Frankie Brimsek of Bruins.

That left Canadiens tied for the lead with Leafs, with three points.

Boston on Sunday night played hosts to Chicago Black Hawks, making their first 1946-47 start, and tied them, 2 to 2. Chicago's Max Bentley, leading scorer of the league last year, got off on the right foot when he notched one goal and scored an assist on the second one by brother Doug. Bep Guidolin and that old-time smoothie, Bill Cowley, scored for Boston.

BLAKE COMES THROUGH

Another crafty veteran was the big noise at Montreal. Cagy Toe Blake, Canucks ice captain, scored the tying goal with less than three minutes of the game left, to Rob Brimsek of what looked like a sure shutout. Bill Shill had sunk a shot at 6:21 of the third and the Bruins' tight defence looked good enough to keep it safe.

Rangers, who this year led a fast young team, lacking polish, however, clicked well at Detroit and spread the scoring around. They rolled up a 3 to 0 count in the first two periods on goals by Grant Warwick, veteran Phil Watson and rookie Jean Paul Lamirande, rangy defenceman from last year's Montreal Royals in the Quebec Senior League. Centre Sid Abel broke the goose egg for the Wings halfway through the third period.

In the Saturday game at Toronto, Maple Leafs fulfilled manager Conny Smythe's fondest hopes for a fighting team as they dished out lots of pepper—seven penalties worth, in fact.

Canadiens Open Season With Win

Kenny Reardon of the Montreal Canadiens is seen scoring one of the goals when the Montreal team defeated the New York Rangers 3 to 0. This was the opening game of the 1946-47 National Hockey League season in Montreal.

Bill Wusyk Grid Scoring Champion

WINNIPEG (CP)—Billy Wusyk of Calgary Stampeders won individual scoring honors in the Western Canada Senior Football League which closed its 1946 regular season at Winnipeg Saturday. Calgary's mighty mite finished the season with 32 points—15 more than his nearest rival Roy Wright of Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Canadian Press statistics give Wusyk eight field goals, four singles and four converts. Wright finished strongly in his last game with seven points, which added to his previous 10, enabled him to nose out teammate Johnny Bell for the runner-up position. Winnipeg's Walter Dobler, sidelined in the last four contests through injuries, held fourth spot with 12 points. Don Hiney of Bombers ranked fifth with 11, followed by five players with 10 points apiece.

West, Legion Score Wins In League Football Games

Victoria West and Canadian Legion are all tied up at the top of the Victoria and District Football League as a result of victories in the week-end soccer matches.

West had little trouble with Oak Bay eleven on Saturday afternoon at Athletic Park as they checked in with a 5 to 3 win over the suburbanites. With Scotty Robinson filling in at the centre forward spot the Wests jumped into a 4 to 0 lead in the first half and added one more in the second canto before the Oak Bay lads hit their stride.

Robinson with two, Ghent, Hutchinson and Travis were the goalgetters for the Wests. Barber, Gornall and Reside tallied for the Bay team.

At Heywood Avenue Sunday afternoon, the Legion edged out

Boxer Takes Premier Trophy At Dog Exhibit

Handsome boxer, Udanic of Sirachrest, owned by Dr. Aylen of Auburn, Wash., was judged best in show at the championship event of the Victoria City Kennel Club held Saturday at the Armories. With over 200 dogs entered, along with 60 terriers in the terrier specialty show, the double event proved a successful promotion and attracted a fair attendance.

Garagiola Awarded George Sisler Trophy

WICHITA, Kas. (AP)—Joe Garagiola, 20-year-old catcher for the champion St. Louis Cardinals, Sunday won the George H. Sisler achievement award, given annually to a National Baseball Congress candidate for meritorious world series play.

Baseball Crowds Set All-Time High; Yankees Are Tops

NEW YORK (AP)—Major league baseball paid attendance increased 63 per cent in 1946 over 1945 to set records in both leagues, unofficial but virtually complete figures show.

The American League drew 9,666,421, compared with 6,002,366 last year, and the National League drew 8,946,283, compared to 5,372,819. Last year's totals were the highest up to that time. New York Yankees with 2,309,029 broke the major league record of 1,485,166 set by Chicago Cubs in 1929. Although the Yankees wound up in third place and played under three different managers, their total was more than double last year's 1,014,936.

TWO OTHERS BREAK MARK

Two other clubs also exceeded the Cubs' 1929 mark—Brooklyn in the National League with 1,796,155, which was tops in that circuit, and Detroit in the American League with 1,722,590.

The American League champions, Boston Red Sox, drew 1,416,944.

Hitherto 1,000,000 paid attendance has been accepted in statistical-minded baseball as the ultimate goal of any club owner. Ten of the 16 teams bettered that figure in 1945, compared to five last year and none in 1944.

To New York Giants went the distinction of being the only last place team to attract more than 1,000,000 customers, the total being 1,234,733. Two other second division clubs also bettered

1,000,000, the Phillies and Cleveland Indians.

Vets Whip K.V.'s In Hoop Feature: Three Tilts Tonight

Basketball teams will see action at the High School gym tonight with three games scheduled. The program follows:

7—Oak Bay vs. Canadian Legion, junior boys.

8—Hudson's Bay vs. Hudson's Bay, senior women.

9—Chinese Students vs. Victoria College, senior C men.

In games Saturday night the Army, Navy and Air Force Vets came through to a smart 33 to 30 triumph over the K.V.'s in the senior A men's division. K.V.'s intermediate B boys won from Tillicum Emcas 40 to 20, and Hotshots turned back the Hepcats 40 to 12 in a junior girls' clash.

Vets were forced to come from behind to hand K.V.'s their second defeat of the season. After the clubmen had grabbed a 11 to 5 margin in the first quarter, the Vets rallied to hold a one-point edge at the half. K.V.'s regained the lead in a rugged third quarter in which personal fouls were numerous.

Late in the final 10 minutes, Vets paced by Vince Clarkson moved in front 28 to 27 and stayed there. Clarkson led the Vets with 13 points, while Fred Ranson was top scorer for K.V.'s with 15.

Teams and scores follow: K.V.'s—F. Ranson 15, B. McKay 1, D. Chunganes, R. Castner 4, R. Anderson 4, Baxter 2, D. McCaghey 2, Ferris, Stewart 2.

Vets—Larry Booth 7, Gordie Creed 9, V. Clarkson 13, Buzz Long, Jim Brown 3, Dick Herliem 1, Tom Joyce.

Emcas—Bernie Anderson 2, Jim Ireland 4, Glen Charlton, Len Clancy, Chuck Leonard 1, Elmer Mathews 5, Mel Davidson 2, Evan Oakley 1, Dan Robinson.

K.V.'s Juniors—Bill Griffin 8, Ron Bentley 4, John Dalman 2, Jim Lewis 12, C. Minnis 2, Ron Pauls 2.

Hotshots—Lorne Ritchie, Vician Bartlett 8, Francis Bartlett 7, Marjorie Noye 2, Adele Walker, G. Kennedy 15, Jean

NANAIMO (CP)—A neat three-way combination midway through the second half Sunday gave Nanaimo a nip and tuck 1 to 0 win over Victoria United here in a Pacific Coast Football League match.

Tricking their way through Victoria's back line of Bob Bell and Tom Druce, Art Denton and Jack Scott set up Alvin Parks for the game's only goal. It came as a climax to a series of determined Nanaimo rushes.

Major Surprises Mark Battles In U.S. Grid Warfare

NEW YORK (AP)—Long runs characterized the play Saturday as the list of unbeaten United States college football teams was cut almost in half.

Army, back at the top of the heap as the No. 1 club, shook Glenn Davis loose for 66 yards and a touchdown and then unleashed Doc Blanchard for 93 yards and another counter as the cadets hammered out their 23rd consecutive victory. This time previously unblemished Columbia was the victim, 48 to 14.

A 47-yard pass and run play, engineered by Bobby Layne, gave Texas its third touchdown in its 20 to 0 romp over Arkansas, the Razorbacks first defeat.

Sprints of 65 and 69 yards brought Iowa home the 13 to 0 winner over Indiana in the big ninth biggest surprise.

Short, consistent gains brought Tennessee a 12 to 0 triumph over Alabama in one of the most important clashes and shot Coach Bob Neyland's record to 36 consecutive victories.

Charlie Trippi, Georgia's famed back, snagged an Oklahoma A. and M. pass and romped 70 yards for one score in his teams 33 to 13 victory.

BRONC RIDING CHAMP

Trade Union Congress Expected To Disagree With Labor Gov't

LONDON (CP)—The Trades Union Congress, the central organization of British workers and faithful friend of the Labor Party now in power, meets in Brighton this week with every expectation of disagreeing with some government policies.

The leading consideration is that the government, if its plans for nationalization are carried through, soon will be employing one in every four British workers. This opens up an immense field of complications between the government and the T.U.C. Under such conditions will the government continue to grant unions the freedom to strike? What arrangements can be made for the re-examination of wages in nationalized industries? Such questions are of interest to the unions and it is likely they will be surveyed in the debates this week.

Some resolutions under consideration suggest more British goods should be kept for the home market instead of continuing the government policy of exporting to the limit. The congress is expected to remind the government it still wants a 40-hour week at the earliest possible moment, although the administration continues to beg for increased production in every field to assist economic recovery.

72 Veterans Leave Senate Chamber

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Seventy-two home-seeking ex-G.I.s ended a 23-hour encampment in the New York State Senate chamber Sunday shortly after Governor Thomas E. Dewey had assured the tired and hungry veterans "we are doing everything we know how" to deal with the housing shortage.

The Governor added that the problem of housing was not a question of dollars, but of obtaining materials and labor. Mr. Dewey also said the federal government had taken control of scarce building materials.

Most of the veterans were members of the greater New York City C.I.O. council.

'Informed Disagreements' Replace Prejudices

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (CP)—Canadian sectional differences today are "informed disagreements" rather than ill-informed prejudices, largely because of the exchange of ideas through Canadian Press dispatches in the Dominion's newspapers, Gillis Purcell, C.P. general manager, today told the fall meeting of the Canadian Circulation Managers' Association.

In the Canadian Press, the daily newspapers had built up a force which had been called the greatest single contribution to Canadian unity, Mr. Purcell said. With techniques of news-writing and news transmission developed in recent years, there was opportunity to make an even greater contribution.

"Before C.P. was founded in 1917 exchange of news across Canada was scanty and haphazard," he said. "Half of the country had little idea how the other half lived, or how it thought. The country was racked by sectional differences arising largely out of the lack of information about itself."

"Canada today still has her sectional differences, but their violence has been toned down by the exchange of ideas over the news wires and by travel, radio and other influences."

Traffic Death

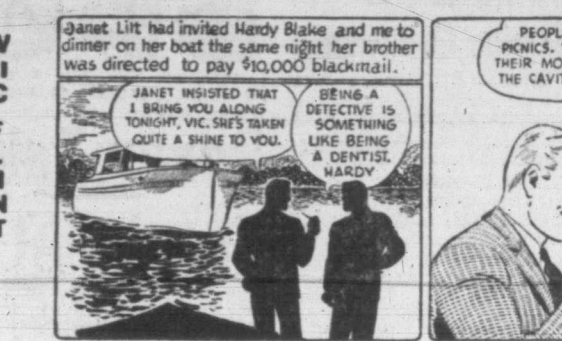

VANCOUVER (CP)—Vancouver's 29th traffic fatality of the year was recorded Sunday with the death in hospital of 69-year-old David Laird, seven hours after he had been knocked down by an automobile in the Grandview district. Eight persons were injured in week-end traffic accidents, and two drivers charged with dangerous driving.

French in France or the Spaniards in Spain.

Caves where Stone Age people lived have been found in the Basque region. It may be that the Basques are descended from Stone Age folk who used caves of France and Spain. Invading tribes from other parts of Europe may have pushed them into the mountain stronghold near the Bay of Biscay.

In any case, the Basques are in that area today. They have taken on some of the arts of civilization, but follow many of their old customs.

The national game of the Basques is known as "pelota." This game is played with a ball which is knocked against a wall with a curved, wickerwork racket. The playing of pelota has spread through Spain, and it also is played in Latin America. (For Travel section of your scrapbook.)

left the factory. We can handle five more cars

Firecrackers Rare But Masks, Pumpkins Here For Hallowe'en

With Hallowe'en a week away, the prospect of a gala evening in the prewar style for Greater Victoria's youngsters is not bright, but since few of the youngsters who might still take part in Hallowe'en fun and mischief can remember prewar celebrations, the chances are that only fathers will be disappointed.

A survey of Victoria shops today showed that the fireworks generally associated with prewar Hallowe'ens are in short supply.
No firecrackers or bombs could be found, and only a meagre selection of sparklers, Roman candles and similar devices, although some of these were available in larger sizes than before the war
— and at higher prices.

Another shortage was evident in candy, but the other edible appurtenances of the night of witches and spooks are available in abundance. Produce dealers reported there are ample pumpkins, oranges and apples, both local and Macintosh.

Another cheering feature of this Hallowe'en is that grotesque and some false-faces are back, after a wartime shortage, in good quantity. Most stores dealing in novelties and Hallowe'en supplies have masks and paper decorations in stock.

tion in the central Mediterranean theatre, and later was wounded and taken prisoner. He was repatriated in October, 1944, and since then, has received successful treatment at Shaughnessy Hospital and Gordon Head Conditioning Centre.

Lieut. J. R. Warburton has succeeded Capt. Moore as adjutant.

The converted maintenance ship Iran is scheduled to leave Victoria between now and Wednesday for the Orient, it was reported today.

The vessel had been expected to leave this evening, but H. S.
Hammill, general manager, Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd., said some minor work had yet to be done and the vessel might not sail until as late as Wednesday.

Seamen sailing with the Iran were recruited mainly from Victoria and are sailing under an agreement with the ship's master which provides that they will be repatriated from Hongkong or Shanghai to Vancouver or Victoria on full pay and subsistence.

Navy To Present Color Ceremony

In keeping with the many traditions of the Royal Canadian naval service, Victorians will have the opportunity to view the color ceremony—or lowering of the colors—in front of the Parliament Buildings at 5.15 this afternoon, and again on Friday.
It will be a part of Navy Week activities.

In the navy, colors are hoisted in the morning and lowered at sunset, except when a ship is at sea. Tonight's demonstration will be performed by a guard of 26 men as well as a field-gun crew and the band from H.M.
C.S. Naden.

The guard will be under the command of Lieut. J. P. Howe, R.C.N.

The party will march off from Prince Robert House and will line up facing the flagstaff on Parliament Buildings grounds.

Before the ceremony, the band will play, and after the "alert"

Butchers To Seek New By-Law For Wednesday Closing

has been sounded, one gun will be fired. The guard will be brought to "present," during which the band will continue to play.

Next, the guard will be brought to the "slope" and a second gun will be fired. "Carry on" will be sounded and the party will march back to Prince Robert House.

This demonstration will be repeated Friday night.

Sunday saw the opening of Navy Week with a church parade of Royal Canadian Sea Cadets from Rainbow I, who attended the morning service at Christ Church Cathedral, Bishop
H. E. Sexton preached the sermon and Dean S. H. Elliott conducted the service.

In the afternoon, sailing races in service whalers were held off Esquimalt and Royal Roads, between members of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club and officers of the R.C.N.

Former members and executives of the Older Boys' Parliaronto Street, proceeding east on Gorge Road, was struck by a car driven west on the same road which failed to stop and remain at the scene of the accident, according to police.

R. S. Towgood, 2560 Vancouver

George suggesting that if yellow lines were painted parallel to the curb 62 inches away from it, drivers would be assisted in getting their cars parked without holding up traffic.

There will be no parade for Royal Canadian Sea Cadets of Rainbow I Tuesday, the ship's company having been invited to H.M.C.S. Naden in the afternoon.
On Friday the ship's company will meet at Prince Robert House for a navy concert at 8.

Even policemen are not exempt from the ticket attached to vehicles which violate city traffic regulations, it was proven Saturday afternoon when a policeman's motorcycle was labeled with overparking slip outside of McGill and Orme's, Fort and investigating a report phoned in ransacked, but nothing was re-

today, and will work in conjunc-

Byelections In Toronto-Parkdale, Portage la Prairie

OTTAWA (CP)—Political observers in the capital today were watching closely the federal by-elections in Toronto-Parkdale and Portage la Prairie for their possible effect on the government's slender majority in the Commons.

Present party standings give the Liberals 125 seats compared with 117 held by the combined Opposition. While two vacancies will be filled by today's elections, a third vacancy was caused Sunday night with the death of Hon. P. J. A. Carlin, Independent member for Richelieu-Ver-chères, Que.

This means that the Liberals hold a seven-vote majority in the Commons, since Speaker Gaspard Fauteux, a Liberal, does not vote. Today's voting could change the majority the Liberal government carries into the next session of Parliament either to five or nine.

China's Last Chance Peace Talks Start

NANKING (AP)—Chinese Communist and government negotiators met today for what some observers called a last-chance peace conference. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek himself called the meeting to order, while fresh fighting flared in the north and one Red spokesman said secession of Communist areas from China
"hangs by a hair."

Within an hour, however, President Chiang departed, accompanied by Madame Chiang, on a four-day inspection tour of Formosa, the official Central Daily News reported.

There was no immediate hint of the trend of the conference.

Community Chest Total Up To $85,550

Money continues to trickle in to the Community Chest, bringing today's total up to $85,550, which is $14,500 short of the $100, 000 objective needed to carry on the work of the 23 "red feather" agencies for 1947.

Only one of the canvassing divisions has passed its quota, the public services division now has $3,185 on a quota of $4,500.

Others nearing their quotas are special names with $30,674 on a quota of $56,000, and residential canvassers with $20,735 on a quota of $22,000.

The business division has now turned in $3,908 on its quota of $8,000; commercial has $2,479 on a quota of $4,000, and industrial has $2,479 on a quota of $3,500.

Chest headquarters at Prince Robert House are remaining open until the end of the month while canvassers complete their collections.

Dr. Pandia Appeals For Hindu Franchise

A brief will be submitted to the standing legislative committee studying changes in the Provincial Elections Act by Dr. D.
P. Pandia on behalf of 1,400
East Indians living in British Columbia, Dr. Pandia said this afternoon, following an interview with Premier John Hart.

Dr. Pandia, who for 10 years dian National Congress in various parts of the world, during the morning paid a courtesy call to the Premier to discuss various

Woman Continues Refusal To Appear As Murder Witness

HAMILTON (CP)—Word
from the Barton Street jail today was that Mrs. Evelyn Dick remains unshakable in her determination not to testify in Hamilton's second torso murder trial
— the joint proceedings against William Bohozuk and her father,
Donald MacLean.

When court opened at 11 a.m.
Crown Prosecutor Harvey Mc-Culloch asked for, and obtained an adjournment to 2 p.m. because, he said, Special Crown Prosecutor T. J. Rigney, K.C., was absent in Toronto.

It was learned Mr. Rigney had gone to Toronto to confer with the Attorney-General's Department and to "receive special instructions in connection with this case" since Mrs. Dick's testimony continues to be unavailable to the prosecution.

As this fourth day of the second trial passed she was said to be steadfast in her decision not to talk. She herself is under sentence of death.

New Verse Sung In National Anthem For United Nations

LONDON (CP) — The King and Queen led a distinguished congregation in a service of intercession Sunday for the United Nations in St. Paul's Cathedral and heard the Archbishop of Canterbury assert peace "can be had only at a spiritual price and by a spiritual conquest."

The Royal couple, escorted into the church by the Lord Mayor of London, was accompanied by Princess Alice, the Earl of Athlone, former Governor-General of Canada, and the Marquess of Cambridge. Prime Minister Attlee was in the congregation.

A verse of the National Anthem was sung which was not hitherto known to the congregation. It was one written early in the 19th century by W. E. Hickson, non-conformist preacher who lived from 1803 to 1870.

Some London newspapers hailed the verse as a new specially written "United Nations" stanza until they looked up the author. The verse runs:

"Nor on this land alone—
But be God's mercies known
From shore to shore,
Lord, make the nations see
That men should brothers be
And form one family
The wide world o'er."

The verse appears in the English hymnal under the National Anthem as the third verse of part two. The authorized verse, which was thought inappropriate for the occasion by the dean and chapter of St. Paul's runs:

"O Lord our God arise,
Scatter our enemies
And make them fall.
Confound their politics,
Frustrate their knavish tricks,
On Thee our hopes we fix,
God save us all."

Very Rev. W. R. Matthews, the dean, said it is to be hoped the alternative verse will come into usage when the three verses of the National Anthem are sung. "This will come about, I feel sure, if the alternative verse is sung often enough."

NEW YORK (CP) — Oswald Wynd of Edinburgh has won the second $20,000 prize novel award offered by Doubleday and Company, it has been disclosed. His book, entitled "The Black Mountains," was written while he was in a concentration camp in Japan.

Truck And Car Collision In Saanich Sends Both Drivers To Hospital

Damage to car driven by Mrs. H. J. Pinhorn is estimated at $1,000.

Howard Reid of Qualicum Beach and Mrs. H. J. Pinhorn, R.R. 3, Royal Oak, are in the Jubilee Hospital today as a result of truck and automobile collision late Saturday afternoon on Quadra Street between McKenzie Avenue and Reynolds Road. Condition of Reid is reported satisfactory — with a slight improvement and that of Mrs. H. J. Pinhorn, R.R. 3, Royal Oak, as "quite good."

Reid, who lived on Manchester and Craigflower Roads before moving to Qualicum, suffered possible concussion and shock. Mrs. Pinhorn, an elderly lady, received face lacerations, fractures ribs, possible injury to the collarbone and shock.

According to Cpl. Jack Hamilton of the Saanich Police, who arrived five minutes after the accident, Reid was proceeding south on Quadra, lost control of his truck and crashed into Mrs. Pinhorn's oncoming car.

After hitting the other car, Reid's truck continued on for 96 feet and finally stopped on the wrong side of the highway on a private lawn. There were no other passengers in either of the cars.

The impact threw Mrs. Pinhorn's car on its side. Damage, chiefly to the left side, is estimated at $1,000. Damage to the truck is estimated at about $300 to $400.

Reid is in charge of Dr. W. E. Mitchell and Dr. E. W. Boak is attending Mrs. Pinhorn.

In addition to Cpl. Hamilton, Constables E. Anderson and R. Adrian attended for the police. First aid was rendered by Dr. R. D. Thompson and Cpl. Hamilton, the injured being removed to the hospital by Saanich Police and C. and C. ambulances.

Reid told police Sunday he did not remember anything after the collision. Something went wrong with the steering apparatus of the truck and the result was he lost control, he said.

Appointment Made

OTTAWA (CP) — In a new move to speed housing construction, Reconstruction Minister Howe has announced the appointment of W. E. Uren of Ottawa to head a new departmental unit for the co-ordination of building materials.

With the establishment of the new branch, the post of co-ordinator of housing construction, held by Terrance Flahiff, will be abolished. Mr. Flahiff will continue as timber controller.

Spain To Give Up German Property

MADRID (AP) — The Spanish government, without giving details, has announced: "An accord was reached with the governments of Britain, the United States and France over handling of German public properties situated in Spain."

This was presumed to mean that Spain finally had recognized the Allied Control Commission in Germany as legal successor to the Hitler government—recognition for which the British and U.S. embassies have pressed in Madrid for a year.

German assets, public and private, in Spain are estimated to aggregate $100,000,000.

After the first two rough and tumble periods, Portland ran away with the game.

Portland ran away with the game in the third period, scoring five times with McDonald and Reardon each getting two goals.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Saskatchewan Roughriders came from behind to nose out Winnipeg Blue Bombers 18 to 17 here Saturday in the final game of the Western Canada Football League's regular 1946 schedule.

'Wells' Human Side Revealed By 'Kipps'

H. G. Wells' "Kipps," now being shown at the York Theatre, reveals a different man than the Wells of vivid imagination or prophetic vision usually associated with the author of "Time Machine," "Invisible Man," "The Shape of Things to Come" and his other popular works. "Kipps" shows the romantic, human side of a less familiar Wells of another day.

Costuming Simple In Romance At Rio

Costuming of Maude Eburne for her role in "The Crystal Ball," the amusing comedy romance co-starring Paulette Goddard and Ray Milland, which is slated for its premiere at the Rio Theatre today, was the easiest job for a long time. They merely turned her loose among the clothes racks and trunks and let her pick out her own wardrobe. For her part as an apple vendor the character actress chose an old-fashioned "black shift," a cotton blouse, torn sweater, ancient shawl and quipped hat.

Scrapbooks Help Cole Porter Story

Fifteen scrapbooks, insured for $2,000 each, reposed in the vaults of Warner Bros. research department during the filming of the technicolor musical, "Night and Day," the Cole Porter story now at the Royal Theatre.

The books are the property of the composer-lyricist, Cole Porter, who loaned them to the studio for the duration of the shooting schedule. The volumes date back to the early days when Porter attended Yale and continued up through his scores of hits to "Mexican Hayride," his most recent Broadway show.

Lawford Refuses 'Old School Tie'

When Peter Lawford was cast as the young Englishman in Ernst Lubitsch's "Cluny Brown," the 20th Century-Fox wardrobe department did some research about the kind of "old school ties" an Oxford graduate might wear.

But the new idol of the bobby-soxers wouldn't hear of it.

"I'm supposed to be playing a democratic guy," said Peter, "and no democratic guy would wear that badge of background known as 'the old school tie.'"

Lawford plays his biggest and best role to date in the motion picture co-starring Charles Boyer and Jennifer Jones, and opening today at the Atlas Theatre.

Mary Beth Hughes In Dominion Film

While Mary Beth Hughes was co-starring with Erich von Stroheim in Republic's "The Great Flamarion," high-tension drama which starts a run at the Dominion Theatre Tuesday, she went over to lunch at the Brown Derby. She noticed what appeared to be a lonely WAC and invited her to be her guest.

To Miss Hughes' amazement, several waiters spoke to the WAC, calling her by name.

"I thought you were a stranger in town," said Miss Hughes. "No, no," replied the girl, "I used to be a waitress here."

CAPITOL THEATRE
Claudette Colbert, who accomplished the rare feat of winning an Academy Award for her comedy performance in "It Happened One Night," is believed to have a worthy successor in her current romantic comedy, "Without Reservations." John Wayne is co-starred, and Don DeFore heads the supporting cast. The film is now being shown at the Capitol Theatre.

Bond Printing Meticulous Business

The printing of the government bonds, now being offered to the Canadian public, at an Ottawa banknote company, is a meticulous business. At every stage in the process the bonds are carefully examined for possible flaws. Maynard Atkinson (right) is supervisor of the examination room, where Carmel Hartly and Mona Hull, both experienced examiners, are shown going through stacks of freshly-printed bonds.

The Original Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers, above, with their diminutive leader, Serge Jaroff, will make a welcome reappearance on Tuesday night at 8.30 in the Royal Theatre.

Colorado Man Shoots Up Denver Bar

Officer Robert Murphy and two unidentified men subdue Ronald F. Smith, Grand Junction, Colo., seconds after he allegedly fatally wounded Dr. James Mullen and wounded Roy M. Hollywood Column

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The Cornet Wilde-20th-Fox feud, which shaped up as a hot one, ended abruptly when he sent a note to Darryl Zanuck and got another in return. Cornet refused "Forever Amber," wanting something like $150,000 a picture instead of his $3,500 a week. Now he will do the role and it's a safe bet he will get $5,000 weekly. He should fare well, since his films usually require 20 weeks' work.

Incidentally, Cornet must keep his eyes closed for three days until his torn eyelid heals. Eight stitches were taken and the tear duct was ruptured because of his fall against a clothes hanger. He is lucky to have saved his sight.

It looks as though Errol Flynn is set for "Frontiersman," a story of the northwest. That's too bad because the role was much wanted by another star who appears to be the least temperamental on the Warner lot—Ronald Regan. Sometimes temperament pays off.

Jack Carson is sad today. In-
